SPORADIC ADVERTISING

There can be no doubt the sporadic advertiser wastes a great deal of money. If advertising brought profit immediately after it was inserted, then there would not be enough presses in the world to print the copy. It is a mistake for publishers to attempt educational work for advertising along boastful or exaggerated lines. The truth and repetition count in advertising, and by the same rule they will count in the development of advertising.—Phoenix Messenger.

"Madam, why can't you serve on this jury?"
"Why, Judge, I have a bridge engagement this afternoon."
And she said it so positively that the judge subsided.
